

FACE UP PAI GOW

Pai Gow loosely translates to “make nine” and was the basis for games like Chemin de fer and baccarat. Out of the seven cards dealt to them, players make their best five-card and two-card poker hands to compete with the dealer’s two hands. The five-card hand must be stronger than the two-card hand. A winner is declared when both of his hands beat the dealer’s respective hands.

Place your two hands on the table in their designated areas.

The dealer will instruct you, if necessary.

The winning cards must beat both the dealer’s five-card and two-card hands.

Winning only one hand results in a tie.

A large percentage of Pai Gow hands end up in ties and no money is exchanged.

If you’re unsure or confused on setting a hand, ask the dealer. The dealer will help by showing you the way the house would play your hand.

GETTING STARTED

Face Up Pai Gow Poker™ features head-to-head play against the dealer and offers the optional Fortune Bonus, Ace-High and progressive wagers. As in standard Pai Gow, each player and dealer receive seven cards, but in Face Up Pai Gow Poker the dealer’s cards are dealt face-up. Face Up Pai Gow Poker is a commission-free game. You do not pay a 5% commission when you beat the dealer; however, when the dealer plays Ace-High, you automatically push. There is NO PLAYER BANKING in Face Up Pai Gow Poker™.

To begin each round, make a standard Pai Gow wager. You may also make the Fortune Bonus, Ace-High and progressive wagers. If a player has wagered at least $5 on the Fortune Bonus, the dealer will place an “Envy” button next to his wager. The dealer then follows house procedures for Pai Gow Poker. If a player’s hand qualifies for payouts, the dealer pays him according to the posted pay table. The dealer pays any Envy Bonuses at the end of each round. If at least one player has a four of a kind, all players with Envy buttons win. In the event that more than one player has at least a four of a kind, all players with Envy buttons win multiple payouts. Note: A player cannot win Envy Bonuses for his own hand or the dealer’s hand.

FORTUNE BONUS

The Fortune Bonus bet wins if your best possible five-card hand is three of a kind or better. If you wager at least $5 on the Fortune Bonus, the dealer will place an “envy” button next to your bet. This qualifies you for an envy bonus payout.
